

"Social Inclusion and Energy Management for Informal Urban Settlements (SES)"

Q-GIS Training Addis Ababa

The Faculty ITC of the University of Twente trained 20 EiABC staff (including the five SES project members) on Q-GIS at Ghion Hotel in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia on the 21st and 22nd of January, 2019. The training was organised by SES as part of the capacity building program between partner universities.

Participants of the Q-GIS Training

The training officially commenced with an opening remark by Dr. Ephrem Gebre Mariam, EiABC's deputy scientific director.

Dr. Ephrem Gebremariam giving an opening remark

Imam Mahmoud Hassan, chair holder of the housing chair, EiABC and a team member of the SES project, briefly explained the aim of the training and invited Dr. Javier Martinez, the faculty ITC of the University of Twente

This newsletter is a product of the SES Project

It was produced and Edited by Javier Martinez, the Faculty ITC of the University of Twente and Abnet Gezahegn, Addis Ababa University, Ethiopia

The SES Project is made possible with the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

The European Commission support for the production of this publication does not constitute an endorsement of the contents which reflects the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

"Social Inclusion and Energy Management for Informal Urban Settlements (SES)"

to introduce the training content and the ITC team.

Briefing by Imam Mahmoud Hassan

The training was conducted by André da Silva Mano, Cheryl de Boer and Javier Martinez (ITC-University of Twente). ITC staff carried out the two-day training focusing on the use of Q-GIS mapping tools. The training brought in new insights in the use of open software mapping tools applied to different case studies. We started with a short introduction and discussion related with the relevance of mapping in SES and in particular in relation to the topic of energy. The level of the participants was excellent and they were very motivated.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

This newsletter is a product of the SES Project

It was produced and Edited by Javier Martinez, the Faculty ITC of the University of Twente and Abnet Gezahegn, Addis Ababa University, Ethiopia

The SES Project is made possible with the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

The European Commission support for the production of this publication does not constitute an endorsement of the contents which reflects the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.